

Table of contents

Introduction	7
René Clarijs &amp; Thijs Malmberg
Youth Policy in the Netherlands: making provision for the voice of families	11
Mike Doolan
Family Group Conference renews the relationship between citizens and the government	25
Rob van Pagée
Sharing Circles: FGC in the context of Indigenized Social Work	43
Ute Straub
The need for professional friendship in a complex society	55
Hans van Ewijk
Between Lifeworld and System	65
Guy Burns, Gerard Ee, Frank Früchtel
Family Group Conferences; meeting the needs of families from different cultures	77
Katharina Nuza and Jane Towey
Family Group Conferences as cause and effect of people power. The next step towards a participation state	83
René Clarijs
Family Power: the implications of Family Group Conferencing	107
Ted Wachtel
The Big Society and Family Group Conferences: explanations and reflections	121
Marilyn Taylor
Restorative Justice as common ground for two variants of conferencing in Germany	131
Otmar Hagemann
De-institutionalism in Central- and Eastern European countries and FGC	143
Maria Herczog

Socio-economic returns on FGC for Dutch multi-problem families	149
Annie de Roo and Rob Jagtenberg
Family Group Conferencing and frail older persons	161
Rosalie Metze
Training FGC co-ordinators	167
Peter Marsh
Using FGC in cases of abuse of older people	175
Linda Tapper
The place of Family Group Conferencing in Child Welfare in the Republic of Ireland	183
Valerie O'Brien
Family Group Conferencing in public mental health care	199
Gideon de Jong &amp; Gert Schout
Planning for the future with two different approaches of FGC	211
Thea van Zwieten
Domestic violence in family control; Regained control and restoring of connections with a Family Group Conference	221
Hilleke Crum and Sandra Kooij
Competences social workers need to empower citizens and to activate social networks	229
Alfons Ravelli
Citizen Circles of Support	235
Martin van de Lustgraaf
About the authors	241